Cold Water Paint

A SUBSTITUTE FOR OIL PAINT AND WHITEWASH.

AN EXCELLENT FIRE RETARDANT AND DISINFECTANT.

INDURINE

(TRADE MARK)

Especially Designed For Inside Work on Factories and Public Buildings

It is a dry powder which can be prepared for use by simply stirring in COLD WATER and can be applied by anyone and will always produce good work.

It is VERY WHITE, extremely reflective and hardens on a wall like stone.

It will last for years, and is unaffected by gases. One coat covers better than two coats of oil paint or whitewash.

It can be used on any surface and for all classes of work, even for the finest decorating.

It will not rub, scale or crack, nor will it soften with age or discolor.

It will not set in the mixing vessel, in fact it improves by standing a few days.

It can be used to good advantage over old whitewash without scraping. IT DRIES OUT WHITE AFTER BEING WET.

It is cheaper than whitewash, durability considered.

It is supplied in barrels from 300 to 400 lbs., also in boxes of 100, 50 and 25 pounds.

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY.

Wilcox on the Stand—Says Markham Was Thought a Spy

Court convened at 9:30 o'clock. Captain Hookano, sworn, states: Saw Markham on Beretania street near C. O. Berger's residence on Monday morning; he was coming towards town; did not see Mrs. Bertelmann near.

George Sea, sworn, states: Am clerk at Police Station; Markham was arrested on Monday at 6:40 p. m.; record was made by B. Zablan.

William Chung Hoon, sworn, states: Sold cartridges 45-70 and 44-70 besides Colt's cartridges to Markham early in December; the revolver cartridges were changed because they did not fit the gun.

E. O. White, sworn, states: Was present when William Chung Hoon sold Markham cartridges early in December; Markham later returned some Colt's cartridges; Markham returned these to change them from centre to rim fire; am positive of that.

Marshal Hitchcock, sworn, states: Remember issuing a permit to Markham on a requisition from E. O. Hall & Son; remember giving a revolver to him some time ago about the time of the St. Clair and Creek conspiracy, because Markham said his life had been threatened.

Sam Nowlein, sworn, states: Remember Bertelmann saying something about sending someone to buy cartridges; Markham bought the cartridges; the box containing them was brought back next day to be changed to rim fire.

Charles Clark, sworn, states: Nowlein sent me to Bertelmann's and received cartridges; got them changed because they were centre fire cartridges; wanted them changed to rim fire.

Mrs. H. F. Bertelmann, sworn, states: George Markham is my brother; he came to our house on Sunday, Jan. 6; he came there after breakfast; he stayed until lunch time, when he left with Robert Wilcox; he came out there on horseback; don't remember what kind of clothes he had on him; he returned to the house on Monday morning, and requested me to come into town; he got on his horse and we got into our carriage and came to our Makiki residence; met white soldiers with Lieutenant King near Sans Souci and were allowed to pass; came in on Beretania street; went into house and Markham went off on horseback; did not see him again.

R. W. Wilcox, sworn, states: Saw Markham at Bertelmann's on Jan. 6; he got there before me; I got there at 3 p. m. and asked Markham to go with me; saw two sentries near Telegraph hill; Markham seemed surprised at seeing them; we went right along; I told the men that Markham was all right, as he could not get away.

Cross-examination—Met Markham on Thursday night near Alapai street on King street; he was on horseback and riding into town; I stopped him and told him to send out a hack, as I wanted to go out to Bertelmann's; there were four of us—Hakuole, Jim, Willie Lane and myself; met Sam Nowlein in front of the Kawaiahao Seminary; G. Patterson's hack came out and I and the others jumped in; the hack had lights on it; went out to Bertelmann's; had come from Junius Kane's place; met Lot Laue there; was at Kahala on Sunday midnight; had not whispered conversation with Markham; he was there with the rest of the prisoners; no one had any faith in him; he was pointed out as a Government spy.

Charles Bartow, sworn, states: Saw Markham at Kahala on Jan. 6; he was a prisoner with others, including ladies; heard talk among some of the men to shoot Markham because he was a spy; he had no gun during the time I saw him.

Cross-examination—Saw Markham showing one man how to use guns, how to load and unload; he also made inspection of the arms; when he first came there he was not a prisoner; he was made a prisoner at 6:30 o'clock on Sunday evening. Court then takes recess till 1:30.

MEETING OF COUNCILS.

Special Business Before the Assembly this Afternoon

There was a special meeting of the Executive and Advisory Councils this afternoon in the Executive building. Present: President Dole, Chairman W. F. Allen, Ministers Hatch, King, Damon and Smith; Councilors Tenney, Bolte, Mendonca, Egan, Homer, Emmeluth, Nott, Morgan, G. P. Castle and D. B. Smith.

Minister Damon introduced the following resolution:

"Resolved,—That the officers and privates of the volunteer company on duty at the Judiciary building from January 17, 1895, to February 11, 1895, inclusive, be allowed the same rate of pay as paid volunteer officers and privates, between January 6, 1895, and January 16, 1895."

President Dole supported the resolution and it passed unanimously.

Minister Damon also moved the following resolution:

"Resolved,—That Section 4 of Act 73, of the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands, be not so construed as to apply to persons on military duty and members of the Citizens' Guard." (The Act in question forbids any Government official receiving $1800 or more a year from receiving any other Government pay.)

Minister Smith supported the resolution.

Mr. Emmeluth was opposed to paying any Government official who was paid $1800 a year or over.

Mr. Castle considered the proper thing was to pay all alike.

The resolution passed unanimously.

Mr. Emmeluth propounded the following question to the Minister of Foreign Affairs:

"Has the Minister of Foreign Affairs at any time during the past ten days given assurances of recognition to royalists or ex-royalists that they could organize and agitate for annexation without taking the oath of allegiance to the Government?"

Minister Hatch replied that no such assurances had been given. All that had been in question was the right of public meeting which could not be denied.

Mr. Emmeluth said that under the cover of annexation advocacy there was liable to be more dangerous business for the Government than anything that had heretofore happened. Those people distinctly avowed that they could not support the Government.

Minister Smith said that the people in question could not be prevented from holding open meetings.

Minister Damon said at first blush he had looked at the matter in somewhat the same light as the honorable gentleman who had asked the question. But the Government had been able thus far to cope with everything that had been brought to bear against it, and he had no fear but that any unlawful doings of these ex-royalists would be met with equal effectiveness.

At 2:05 the Councils went into executive session.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS

Two Cases in Probate Adjudicated by Judge Cooper.

Judge Cooper has admitted the will of the late Charles Lunt Carter to probate, and ordered letters testamentary to issue to Mary Horton Scott Carter, widow, and Alfred W. Carter, under $3000.

Judge Cooper has appointed Mrs. Mary Horton Scott Carter as guardian of the persons and property of H. A. P. Carter and Grace Stevens Carter, minor children of the late C. L. Carter and the guardian so appointed, under $20,000 bond.

In a recent editorial the Salem, Oregon, Independent says: "Time and again have we seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy tried and never without the most satisfactory results. Whenever we see a person afflicted with hoarseness, with a cough or cold, we invariably advise them to get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy; and when they do, they never regret it. It always does the work, and does it well." For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.
